

MÉXICO

Mexico ranks as the 22 largest grape producer in the world. Approx. 60% of their grapes are used for the production of Wine and the rest are table grapes and raisin grapes.

Vineyards in seven Mexican states produce the bulk of grapes in Mexico - Northern Baja, Sonora, Coahuila, Zacatecas, Coahuila, Durango, Zacatecas, Queretaro, Aguascalientes. For the purpose of this Directory, Mexico has been divided into four Regions: Baja, Northern, Central and Southern Regions.

<http://www.wineandvinesearch.com/mexico.php>